Outline Description	Prophet Daniel
Property Description	The niche consists of a semicircular recess crowned by a scallop. The recess stands on a moulded sill, supported by two corbels representing a lion which are in turn flanked by head of lion. The recess is framed on either side by double plain pilasters which support an architrave and a pediment. A cherub decorates the space within the pediment while the symbol of the Eucharist decorates its apex. The statue, which represents the Prophet Daniel holding a scroll in his left hand and a raised right arm, is set on a low plinth with three lion heads. A coat-of-arms is centrally placed under the plinth between the lion corbels. A marble plaque with the name of the prophet is set underneath the coat-of-arms.
